THE RIDES

Hideous Hundred -10,800 feet of climbing - 109 miles. Bring your big gears and an attitude. This ride up Breckenridge Mountain will HAUNT you for a long time and the descent will give you CHILLS. You're special Hideous Hundred Patch will be waiting for you at the top. You must have ID. (Difficulty extreme) START 6:00 AM

Horrible Hundred -8,600 feet of climbing - 102 miles. You had better still bring those big gears; Lions Trail and White Wolf Grade is each 5 + miles long and has grades of 6 to 10% that will make your quads SCREAM with PAIN
(Difficulty extreme) START 6:00 AM

Nightmare Ninety – 4,500 feet of climbing - 92 miles. Actually after White Wolf Grade, some of this course will leave you with pleasant dreams as you ride up beautiful Caliente Creek to Twin Oaks and back. (Ride a little further and ride a century)
(Difficulty moderate) START 7:00 AM

Morbid Metric - 2,900 feet of climbing - 62 miles. With a monster climb of its own, White Wolf Grade will get your lungs HOWLING. Your Destination is Caliente where you will meet the riders from the Hideous & Horrible Hundreds & Nightmare Ninety.
(Difficulty moderate) START 8:00AM

Frightful Forty - 500 feet of climbing - 40 miles. Enjoy this Halloween ride along Kern River on our bike path, past Lake Ming, Ethel's Corral and up rattlesnake grade (two miles of 3-4 % grade) which will get your legs asking for MERCY!
(Difficulty EZ) START 9:00 AM

Trembling Twenty - 500 feet of climbing – 25 miles -The same route as the Frightful 40 just shorter. Rattlesnake grade will get your legs screeching.
